Why Deborah Fits Supplements, Nutrition, and Diagnostics Roles

Functional-medicine pharmacist with 25+ years in healthcare and a decade immersed in nutritional biochemistry and the science surrounding the microbiome. She co-developed a private-label supplement line of about $360,000 a year, interpreted functional and conventional labs as one connected picture, and built education for families, practitioners, and the public.

Typical Responsibilities: How Deborah Delivers

SCIENCE, PRODUCT, AND QUALITY

Translate nutrition and supplement science accurately

DIRECT EVIDENCE

Built the practice's full education program, from blog posts and product copy to handouts and care plans, with every claim checked in PubMed and UpToDate.

Formulation, sourcing, and quality documentation

DIRECT EVIDENCE

Co-developed a private-label line of about $360,000 a year; reviewed supplier documentation and batch Certificates of Analysis; sourced alternate suppliers during a six-month backorder.

Lab and biomarker interpretation

DIRECT EVIDENCE

Integrated GI-MAP, Doctor's Data, and Genova stool analyses, organic acids profiles, StrateGene nutrigenomic reports, and optimal-range labs into precise guidance.

EDUCATION AND COMMUNITY

Educate practitioners and consumers

DIRECT EVIDENCE

Led three twice-monthly mentorship cohorts for MDs, DOs, and NPs and weekly family roundtables, and presented for the Personalized Lifestyle Medicine Institute.

Respond to customer and community questions

DIRECT EVIDENCE

Answered nutrition and supplement questions in a private Slack community and on Facebook and Instagram, grounded in evidence and the limits of what a supplement can claim.
